

Eastern European Voices:

the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender movement in Poland and Eastern Europe

Film Screening:

Friday, October 3, 2008

Coming Out in Poland and Jesus would be King
6pm -7pm reception, film screening at 7pm
LGBT Center 208 W. 13th Street b/w 7th and 8th Ave.
Tickets $10.

Discussion will follow the screening with the director of Jesus would be King Daniel Kupsovsky and representatives of the Campaign Against Homophobia (KPH) from Poland.

Panel Discussion:

Tuesday, October 7, 2008

“Revisiting the Parades-What is the next step for the Eastern European LGBT movement” and film screening of Tolerance 4pm -7pm at Synergos 51 Madison Avenue, 21st Floor.

Panelists will represent international human rights organizations and the Campaign Against Homophobia from Poland

Shake Your Polka - Polish Party: Tuesday, October 7, 2008

9pm - Mehanata-Bulgarian Bar. 113 Ludlow street. Voluntary contribution at the door

Organized by the Polish Campaign Against Homophobia
For more information please email: againsthomophobia@gmail.com www.kph.org.pl