Arus Pelangi

National Federation of LGBTI
Communities in Indonesia

Despite calls, even by government officials, for executions and public censorship of LGBTIQ voices, Arus Pelangi has stood up for the rights of Indonesians. As our strong partner in the world's 4th most populous nation, Arus Pelangi serves as a national organization leading the queer community to safety and security as they support human rights in the face of continual homophobia, transphobia, and religious extremism.
